King Features Congratulates Our Award Winners!

Hilary B. Price, known for her brilliant work on Rhymes with Orange, was honored at the 78th Annual Reuben Awards as Outstanding Cartoonist of the Year. This prestigious accolade is a testament to Price's exceptional talent, creativity, and consistent ability to resonate with readers. Price began collaborating with Rina Piccolo (Tina's Groove, Six Chix) on Rhymes with Orange in 2017. The creative partnership further enriched the strip, adding layers of humor and insight that readers delight in and identify with.

The Best Newspaper Panel award went to the ever-talented Wayno, the artist behind Bizarro, whose unique blend of surreal humor and whimsical art continues to amuse and entertain readers. This win also honors the legacy of Dan Piraro, the original creator of Bizarro, whose innovative style laid the groundwork for Wayno's continued success.

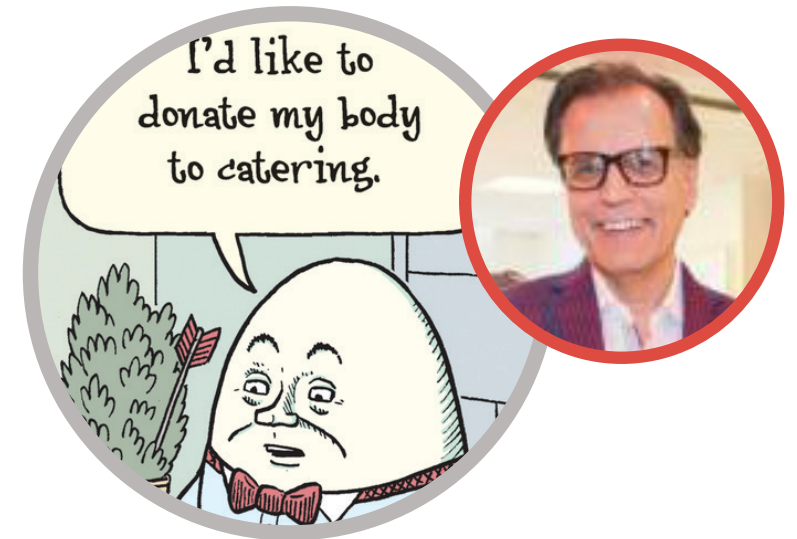

Other honored nominees in the King Features family included Liniers (Newspaper Comic Strip) and Bob Weber and Scott Underwood (Variety Entertainment). Panel cartoonist and children's book author, Dan Misdea, also won a divisional award for Gag Cartoons.

Congratulations to our King Features cartoonists on this well-deserved recognition!
